

Abbotsford Community Foundation Welcomes Eagle West Cranes as a Major Donor to the Scholarship and Bursary Program

Abbotsford, Jan 29, 2008 – Eagle West Cranes has made a commitment to its employees and the citizens of Abbotsford by choosing the Abbotsford Community Foundation to administer $500 Post Secondary Bursaries. These bursaries will be awarded to graduates continuing their education at a vocational school, college or university.

“Life is a team effort. No one gets very far alone,” says Eagle West President Jim Barkman. “Eagle West has built a reputation based on the company's values of mutual respect, supportive teams and continual learning. Each company representative, from operators to administration does their best to maintain it.”

Through public donations, the Abbotsford Community Foundation invests in local projects and builds endowment funds that support community activities, improving the quality of life for those who live, work and enjoy our ‘City in the Country’. Also known for the Scholarship & Bursary Program, the Abbotsford Community Foundation consistently helps to enrich the cultural and social fabric of the city.

“Eagle West is supporting our goal to increase access to post secondary education”, says Debbie Magson, Executive Director of the Abbotsford Community Foundation. “Students from eight of our public and private secondary schools in Abbotsford may apply for scholarships and bursaries by contacting their school counselors.”

At Eagle West, “Our People Make Our Company”, and management aims to attract and support the best people. The company is also extending the bursary program to employees and their families in Abbotsford, the BC Interior and Alberta.
